Echo Point Explorer

An Amazing Race / Treasure Hunt style adventure built for the Blue Mountains. Teams are driven through the region's stunning landscapes, stopping at iconic locations including Echo Point and the Three Sisters to tackle challenges including Laser Clay Shooting, Archery, Cheese Tasting and Blind Wine Tasting. A truly immersive way to experience one of NSW's most breathtaking regions.

Blue Mountains Survivor

Outwit, outplay and outlast your opponents against the spectacular backdrop of the Blue Mountains. Based on the hit TV series, teams compete head-to-head in a series of immunity challenges set among the region's stunning scenery, tackling initiative and problem-solving tasks that require every team member to work together to claim victory.

The Hour of Power

SolarBuddy's Hour of Power is a one-hour CSR event, where delegates assemble JuniorBuddy solar lights to help children living in energy poverty. By providing a reliable light source, you're giving these children the chance to study after dark and improve their education. We give companies, like yours, the opportunity to illuminate children's lives.

LEGO® Serious Play®

Get to the heart of the matter using the power of LEGO! This unorthodox approach to business meetings sees your team tell stories and share ideas by building 3D LEGO models, hence the term "serious play"! This hands-on method encourages creativity and collaboration, allowing participants to express their thoughts tangibly and explore complex issues to unlock innovative solutions together.

DISC Workshop

Discover powerful and valuable insights into your team with accredited DISC Profiling facilitators in an educational and experiential workshop that explores your behaviours at work. We will explore your communication styles, conflict resolution techniques, leadership and collaboration strengths and weaknesses in an informative workshop that feels more like fun.

Project Pipeline

Teams will manage time, resources and personnel to build their country's pipeline. The challenge is then to negotiate with the other 'countries' to connect their pipelines to create one continuous pipeline. Teams will need to work against the clock and conflicting objectives to achieve the whole group goal.

Team Masterpiece

Bring your conference themes, company values or mission statement to life in this creative event. Working with a professional artist, teams discover the tricks of the trade as they discover their creative potential whilst linking to pre-determined themes. How? By turning ideas and thoughts around your business into a team masterpiece that they never thought possible!

Game on! Game Show

Come on down! It's time to play Game On! Game Show, the high-energy event inspired by your favourite TV game show classics. Presented by a charismatic game show host, teams battle it out across rounds of Family Feud, Jeopardy, Catch Phrase, and more. A perfect mix of nostalgia and competition, it's guaranteed to bring your group together for a night to remember!
